

Personal Finance

Financial Literacy
Grades 9-12

Learners are empowered to kick-start their financial journey with key money management skills.

This JA program aligns well with the following areas of the Ontario curriculum: Financial Literacy, Social-Emotional Learning Skills, Math & Language.

I want a JA volunteer to lead the learning experience

I want to lead the experience as a teacher

 Virtual experience

 In-person experience

 In-person or virtual

 75 Minutes
During class time

 75 Minutes
During class time

 2-4 hours total

JA volunteer(s) will facilitate the program during class time using an online video conferencing tool

The teacher will organize the materials and remain in the classroom

JA will provide additional activities/resources to continue the learning

JA Volunteer(s) will run activities and facilitate the program in the classroom during the school day

The teacher will organize the materials and remain in the classroom

JA will provide additional activities/resources to continue the learning

Teachers can run the program with their class and facilitate all the activities virtually or in the classroom

Teachers are able to run the program at their own pace

JA will provide access to the JA Campus with online resources

Start here - Register your class

Students will:

- Discover the importance of emergency savings funds and credit cards
- Balance a monthly budget and create a savings plan
- Identify how to make good decisions about personal finances throughout various life events
- Learn how to recognize potential risks to personal finances

“

That we learned so much information about personal finance and how to pay close attention on how we spend our money and what we do with our money.

-Grade 10 student

”

Sign up today

Need more information?

Questions?

Explore Learning Experiences

View Curriculum Correlations

Start here - Register your class